National Intelligence Council

27 February 1987

MEMORANDUM FOR: Chairman, National Intelligence Council
FROM: MG David W. Einsel, Jr.
National Intelligence Officer at Large
SUBJECT: Examples of Intelligence Products

1. Most, if not all, of the CBW and nuclear non proliferation related intelligence products are heavily policy related and their Key Judgments indicate high relevance to policy matters being currently debated.

2. Probably the best examples of intelligence being independent of policy being currently advocated SNIE 11/17-2-84/L: Soviet Offensive Chemical Warfare Threat to NATO, requested by the Director DIA, where it very clearly reports a wide variation and range of interpretations that could be made

3. Also attached are a list of Key Judgments with notations as to who requested them and a summary of where they abide by intelligence independence.

David W. Einsel, Jr.
